

NASER DEMIRI – DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF THE PUBLIC REVENUE OFFICE

He was born in 1979 in Tetovo.

He graduated at the South East European University-Tetovo in 2004 in the field of business administration.

After graduation, he actively participates in several workshops, trainings and visits, among which are included:

- Workshop for civil servants organized by the British Council;
- National School of Government through EU-funded Project Management from the European Agency for Reconstruction on the subject of Advanced Financial Management and Auditing Skills, Project and Program Management, EU Advanced Skills;
- Challenges of Democracy in Modern Europe at the Summer University of Democracy – Strasbourg, France at the Council of Europe;
- School of Political Studies - Skopje on the development of political skills: public policies, strategic management of local communities, political marketing and electoral application management, communication science;
- Visit to the Civil Service Public Administration of the Chinese Academy of Governance in Beijing (China).

Mr. Demiri has the following work experience:

- Member of the Commission for filing complaints on the securities market;
- Chairman of the Supervisory Board of PE "Tetovo";
- Advisor to the Sector for Macroeconomic and Developmental Policy in the Ministry of Finance;
- Head of the Cabinet of the Deputy Minister of Finance in the Ministry of Finance;
- State Advisor in the Agency for Foreign Investments and Export Promotion of the Republic of Macedonia.

Since 01.09.2015 he has been appointed as Deputy Director of the Public Revenue Office.